

GIVE ME A BREAK(OUT)!!!

Looking for a good reason to attend the Friday and Saturday, April 20-21 “All IN Rotary” statewide conference at the Indianapolis Marriott Downtown?

Here are 10 reasons: Breakout sessions. These 40-minute get-togethers are teeming with ideas that you and your club can use to take your club to the next level.

To register for the conference, click HERE:

(INSERT REGISTRATION LINK)

Or go to www.allinrotary.org.

Conference and registration fees: $149 Two-day rate; $99 New Members (joined since April 1, 2017); $99 Single Day. Deadline to register for conference or $149 per night room rate at the Marriott: April 9.

From left: Evan Burrell, Mitty Chang and Barbara Nieviadonski

No. 1 -- Young & Restless– How do you attract those elusive young professionals to Rotary? These internationally acclaimed Rotary lovers can help.

Presenters: Evan Burrell, Rotary Club of Turramurra, New South Wales, Australia; Mitty Chang, Rotary e-club of Silicone Valley, CA; Rotaract Superstar; Barbara Nieviadonski, Districts 4730, Brazil, former Rotary Youth Exchange student.

Sat 4/21: 3:30-4:10, 4:30-5:10

No. 2 -- Membership: Give them what they want – How to provide members what they seek from Rotary, get new members trained and engaged in an area of interest immediately after joining, groom new members for leadership roles, obtain regular feedback, implement changes to ensure member satisfaction.

Presenter: Brent Rosenthal, PDG District 6690 (Ohio).

Fri 4/20: 2:10-2:50, 3:10-3:50, 4:10-4:50.

No. 3 -- 3 ways to inspire Rotarians into action -- Keeping yourself motivated is one thing. Constantly inspiring other Rotarians to give more funds, time and discretionary effort is quite another! During this FUN and unique program, you'll learn three mesmerizing leadership strategies for inspiring others into action, regardless of their personality type.

Facilitator: Tim Shurr, President of Shurr I Success Seminars, is an award-winning speaker and success coach who discovered how to help individuals and companies make incredible breakthroughs after facilitating tens of thousands of hypnosis sessions through his chain of Hypnotism clinics. ! His "brain-training" strategies have been featured on ABC, NBC, CBS, Fox News, and the TEDx stage. TimShurr.com

Fri 4/20: 2:10-2:50, 3:10-3:50, 4:10-4:50. Sat 4/21: 2:40-3:20

No. 4 -- Diversity, Inclusion, and the Science of Unconscious Bias

- How do you reduce the impact of bias in organizations and people?

This presentation clarifies the importance of a diversity-based culture, then gets scientific about measuring unconscious bias and what can be done to override the biases with education and exposure.

In the “New Abnormal” world of the modern economy, a culture that encourages the full participation of all people on the team is a real competitive advantage.

Presenter: Karl Ahlrichs, speaker and author, has broad experience in Human Resources, Operations and senior level problem solving. He has decades of strategic consulting to all industries, using risk management and good organizational development theories to bypass “best practices” and move directly to “next practices”.

Sat 4/21: 3:30-4:10, 4:30-5:10

No. 5 – WHAT PEOPLE WANT IN A LEADER – Rotary International Director Greg Yank will review key leadership principles and will share his story about how Rotary helped shaped his approach to managing both employees and volunteers.

Presenter: Since 1978 Greg Yank of O’Fallon, IL has been active in Rotary from the club to the district to the international level. He is Rotary International Director for the 13-state “Heart of America” (Zones 30-31) which includes all of Indiana.

Sat 4/21: 3:40-4:20, 4:30-5:10.

No. 6 -- Make your Vocational Training Team a success-- District 6540 will give you a behind-the-scenes look at their Vocational Training Team (VTT) Global Grant from Turkey and will share lessons learned.

Through the project three Turkish special education professionals came to Indiana to learn techniques for preparing intellectually disabled young adults ages, 16-20 for successful employment. Presenters also will address post training activities in Turkey.

Presenters: Christina Dougherty is PDG (D6540), Past President and Foundation Chair for the LaPorte club. Mary Kaczka was VTT co-chair.

Fri 4/20: 2:10-2:50, 3:10-3:50, 4:10-4:50.

No. 7 -- Public Image: Tell your club's Rotary story– Are you telling your club's Rotary story? Or are you keeping it to yourself? If you don't tell your club's story, how do you make your club and Rotary attractive to prospective members? session will cover Rotary's "People in Action" effort and why you should publish a Club Annual Report.

Facilitator: Greg Maciolek, Rotary Club of Knoxville Breakfast, and Zone 30 Public Image Coordinator. A retired Air Force fighter pilot, Greg runs two business-to-business training and development companies.

Fri 4/20: 2:10-2:50, 3:10-3:50, 4:10-4:50. Sat 4/21: 2:40-3:20.

No. 8 -- Change lives through Global Grant Scholars– Should your club or district consider a Global Grant Scholarship program? Ray Klingensmith, 2010-11 Rotary International President, and Rotary Scholar Kaz Fukuda of Yokohoma, Japan will talk about how studying abroad through Rotary's Global Grant Scholarship programs can change lives.

Sat 4/21: 3:30-4:20 and 4:30-5:20).

No. 9 -- Active Shooter -- In an effort to empower organizations with a comprehensive active shooter program, CEO Timothy Stupy and Solutions Consulting LLC have designed active shooter preparedness training for all types of business, academia, and healthcare facilities.

Presenter: Timothy Stupy lives in Evansville where he continues to advance his passion for emergency management and security.

Fri 4/20: 2:10-2:50, 3:10-3:50, 4:10-4:50. Sat 4/21: 2:40-3:20

No. 10 -- Do you have a social media strategy? -- Your website, your social media, and your marketing strategy all play a role in your marketing. If you and your club need help taking control, this breakout session is for you.

Presenter: Dana Nelson is a social media digital strategist and Constant Contact Solution Provider, based in Evansville.

Sat 4/21: 2:40-3:20, 3:30-4:20

WANT TO TAKE A DEEPER DIVE? – Attend an 8:30-11:15 Friday morning workshop: Emerging District Leaders, led by former Rotary International President Ray Klingensmith; Visioning, led by Glen Vanderford; Membership challenges and opportunities, led by Brent Rosenthal; or Club Officer Training Seminar (COTS), especially valuable for new or veteran club secretaries and treasurers, led by John Frischie.

THANK YOU, SPONSORS!

Businesses and organizations can still join us as sponsors.

Sponsorships are available at the following levels: $5,000, $2,500, $1,000.

Contact Kathy Cookerly at (317) 726-6669 or email her at Kathryn_Cookerly@sbcglobal.net.

A big THANK YOU to our current sponsors!

