TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALLGAME!

You can't beat this combination: Hamburgers, hot dogs, sodas, beer in the Rotary picnic area and box seats for the Indianapolis Indians-Charlotte Knights baseball game! The Indians, the Triple-A affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates, play at Victory Field, and the team's mascot is "Rowdie the Bear." Get your picture made with Rowdie. Picnic area opens: 5:30-7:05 p.m. Game: 7:15 p.m. Location: Victory Field. Registration: $35 per person.

MIND TRIPPING SHOW: CANDID CAMERA MEETS TWILIGHT ZONE

The Mind Tripping Show is the longest running live theatre show in Indianapolis. It's intimate, interactive and theatrical. Mind Reading, Influence, Psychological Illusions, and Comedy all come together to create a night of fun. Challenge your perceptions. Turn your expectations upside down. Christian & Katalina, the #1 Husband & Wife Comedy Mind Reading Show, will have you laughing and scratching your head. Show time: 7:30 p.m., Indiana Ballroom F, Marriott. Registration: $25 per person (must be 21).

ROOFTOP PARTY

8:30-11 p.m. Friday, April 20. Join your friends for a Rooftop party and "Taste of Indiana."

It's "up on the roof" at the 5th Floor of the Indiana Government garage, attached by a 3rd floor walkway from the Marriott. Registration: Free admission. BYOB.

SATURDAY: WALKING FOR POLIO

Volunteers will take to the streets of downtown Indianapolis to proclaim Rotary's leadership role in eradicating polio and our resolve to complete this quest. Gather at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at Hudnut Commons just outside the hotel. Groups of 30 will walk to Monument Circle and back. Total walking distance: 1 mile.

Walkers are asked to contribute $15 ($8 for a T-shirt and $7 for End Polio Now).
